TAWA Market Hall, is the newest culinary destination in Eastvale and offers a diverse dining experience for local residents as well as the thousands of people employed at the adjoining logistics and business park, including Amazon, Volkswagen, Shred-IT and multiple service businesses.

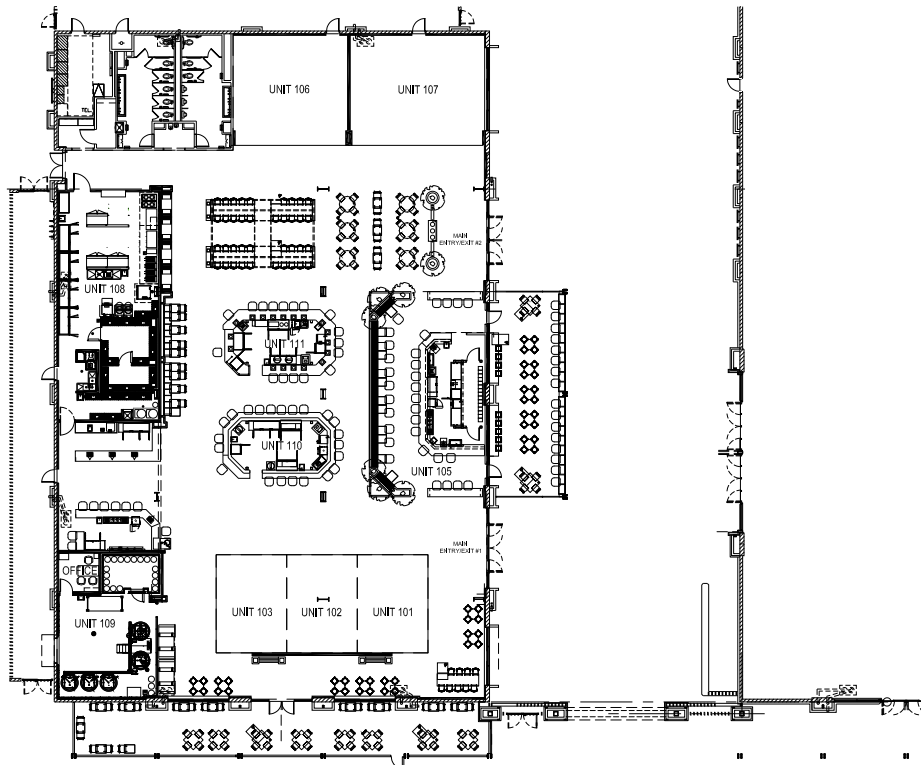

Located at The Station, a newly developed 148,000 square foot retail power center, TAWA Market Hall is co-anchored by Costco, 99 Ranch Market, Chick-fil-A, and In-N-Out Burger.

This beautifully designed modern food hall, next to 99 Ranch Market, boasts new chef-driven concepts such as Lima Nikkei, Ostrea Oyster Bar, Mura Shabu, and Monkey King Brewing.

The customer base captures everyone from young families and sports teams to a multitude of business employees craving specialty concepts and craft drinks.
